How do I connect Blog2Social with Facebook groups?

Important Information Regarding Facebook Groups

Unfortunately, Facebook decided to shut down the Facebook Groups API interface on April 22, 2024. This means that all third-party tools can no longer directly connect to Facebook Groups to share content. You can find more information on this topic here:

Should Facebook reverse this decision and reopen its API, Facebook Groups will, of course, be able to connect through Blog2Social once more.
