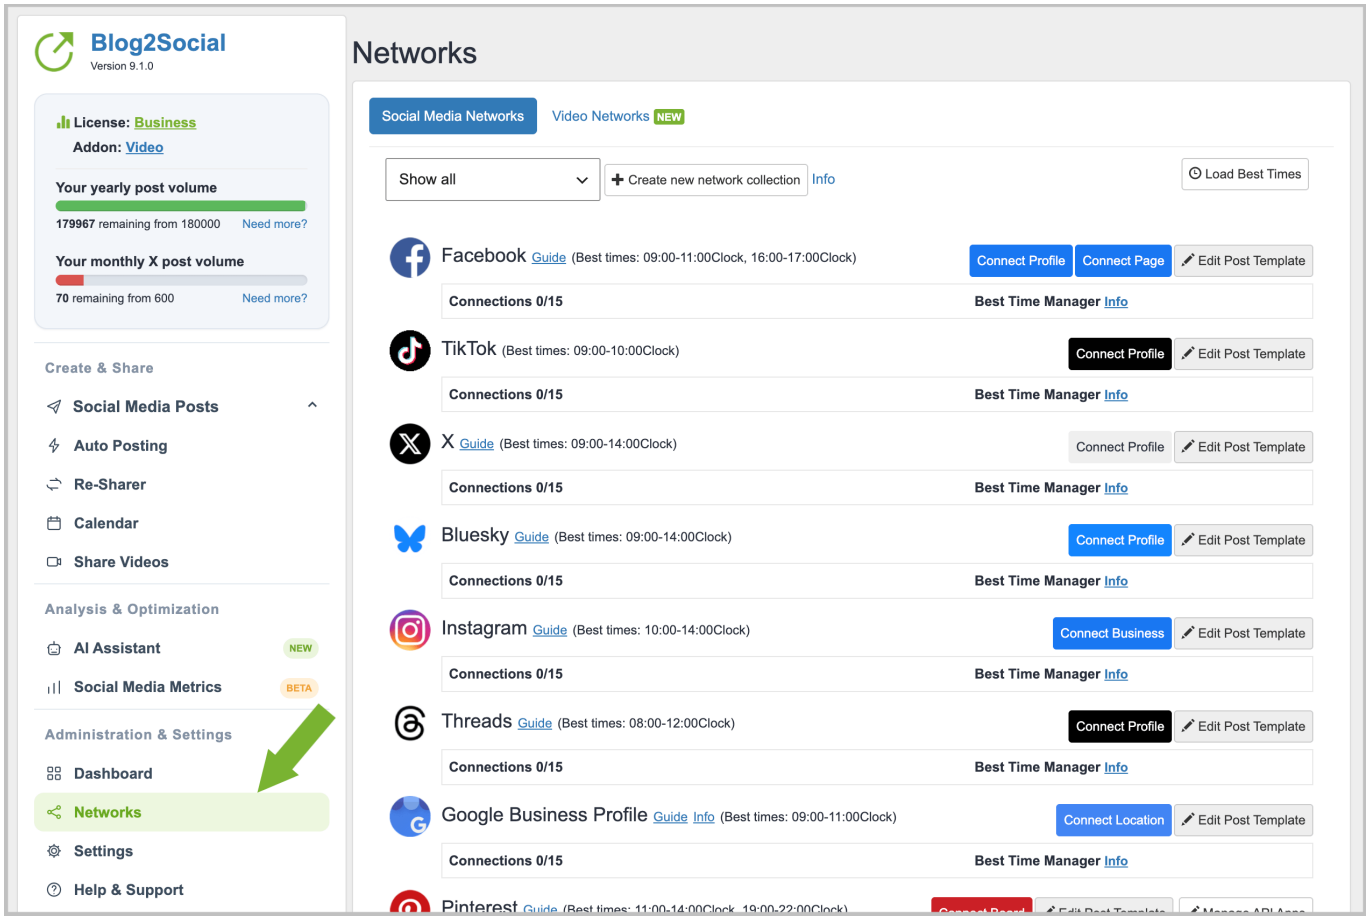
Connecting Social Networks

How do I connect my Social Media Accounts?

There are a lot of social media networks supported by Blog2Social. To connect your social media accounts in Blog2Social, follow these simple steps:

1) Log in to your Blog2Social Dashboard:
Start by accessing your Blog2Social account from your WordPress dashboard.

2) Navigate to the "Networks" section:
On the left-hand menu, click on "Networks". This will open a list of all the available social media networks you can connect to Blog2Social.



3) Choose the network you want to connect:
You will see a list of social media platforms, such as Facebook, X (Twitter), Instagram, LinkedIn, Threads, Google Business, Pinterest, Telegram and many more. Next to each network, there are options to connect different types of profiles, pages or groups.
Here you will find all features and supported networks of the different Blog2Social versions:

4) Click on "Connect Profile" or "Connect Page":
Depending on the type of account you want to connect, click on the appropriate button next to the network. For example, if you want to connect your Facebook profile, click “Connect Profile” or if you want to connect a LinkedIn page, click “Connect Page”.

5) Authorize Blog2Social to access your account:
After clicking, you will be redirected to the login page of the respective social network. Log in with your credentials and authorize Blog2Social to access your account. This step allows Blog2Social to automatically share your posts to the selected profile, page, or group.

Please note:
If you are already logged into the network with your profile in your browser, this profile will be automatically selected for connection in Blog2Social. Therefore, please make sure you are logged out of the network in your browser if you wish to connect a different profile.

6) Repeat the process for other networks:
You can repeat the above steps to connect multiple social media accounts. Simply go back to the “Networks” section and select the next account you want to connect.

That’s it! You’ve now connected your social media accounts, and Blog2Social is ready to help you share your content effortlessly across all your chosen platforms.
