Troubleshooting for Error Messages

We don't have the permission to publish your Pinterest post. Please check your authorization.

To resolve this notification when posting on your Pinterest account, we suggest checking out the following tutorials that provide solutions for various possible reasons for this notification:

1) Please reauthorize your Pinterest account in your “Networks” section of Blog2Social:
Solution: Your authorization has expired. Please reconnect your account in the Blog2Social network settings.

2) Can you share your post including link directly on Pinterest (without Blog2Social)?
If you're facing issues when sharing link posts on Pinterest, the following tutorial shows you how to verify your website on Pinterest so you’re able to share your links as well:
